

PER-320 Personal Protective Measures for Biological Events

The Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) Center for Domestic Preparedness (CDP), in conjunction with the Pennsylvania Department of Health Bureau of Emergency Medical Services (EMS) is pleased to announce the offering of PER-320 Personal Protective Measure for Biological Events.

This eight (8) hour course will provide students with the ability to identify biological threats, protect themselves, and operate and perform essential protective measures in a hazardous biological environment.

Course Location:

Superior Ambulance Service
321 East Main Street Ext.
Grove City Pa 16127

Course Date: January 19, 2015

Registration Information:

To request registration e-mail Aaron Rhone arhone@pa.gov with: Your name, agency being represented, telephone number, and SID. Registration closes 1 week prior to course start date.

While the course is free - travel to the course, meals, and other expenses are the responsibility of the student.

Seating is limited; a registration request does not guarantee a seat for this course. You will be considered confirmed to attend when you receive a confirmation of attendance email.

All students attending this course must have a FEMA Student Identification (SID) number, which can be obtained at: <https://cdp.dhs.gov/FEMASID/>